The Dy. Commr. was requested to investigate the case of Kadim Kunney with the direction that in the case of lands with ref rights alleged by the pt., it is seen from the record under appeal as well as that the local officers and the Dy. Commr. are of opinion that the ptes. have failed to prove their allegation of badmou tenancy, and the Muz. Commr. has ruled that the claim is unsustainable. It is stated that badmou tenancy is not recognized by Govt as regards Govt land, and that all claims of other tenants are of a civil nature. The Muz. Commr. has directed that the ^{the} Amildar should be instructed to sell the right of tenancy of the land for 5 years.
